CENTENNIAL HOOP TOURNEY SET

The first major varsity basketball tournament of the new year will take place this weekend at the Loyola Campus of Concordia University. The host Stingers will play host to McGill University, University of Ottawa and Bridgewater State College in the 21st Annual London Life Centennial Tournament.

Bridgewater and McGill will open up proceedings with a 6 p.m. game Friday January 9th while Concordia and Ottawa are slated to tip-off at 8 p.m. On Saturday the consolation match will be staged at 1 p.m. followed by the championship final at 3 p.m.

Concordia guided by veteran head coach Doug Daigneault, won last year's Centennial tourney with a thrilling 79-70 triumph over the University of Western Ontario Mustangs.

The Stingers are led offensively by fifth year veteran guard Craig "Stormin" Norman. With star centre Rob Latter possibly out for the season with a serious back injury his giant sneakers are now being filled by rookie six foot eight centre Keith Alexander, "The Friendly Giant".
